- Inside the CBD: by special permit.
- Do not erect fences around public property.
- Stands and structures in New Orleans must be authorized by city Director of Safety & Permits

Beads & Throws:

- Do not throw, cast, or propel any substance from any window, door, balcony or roof onto any public place, street, sidewalk, or median within French Quarter.

SAFETY TIPS . . .

Driving

- Plan your route, leave early, and be sure to include alternate routes.
- Be extra careful driving or walking near parades and parade routes.
- Drive carefully, watch out for drunk pedestrians.

Home Security

Unoccupied homes and parked automobiles are tempting targets for burglars during the Mardi Gras Season, especially during parade time.

- Take measures to secure personal property, specifically locking doors and windows to the house and garage.
- It is a good idea to leave lights and a radio on.
- Inform reliable neighbors of a planned absence and request that they report to the police any suspicious person(s) or suspicious activity.
- Personal property, including clothing, should not be left in unattended vehicles.

Beads & Throws

- Be alert for beads and trinkets thrown during parade.
- Wear sunglasses during the day to protect your eyes from the sun and throws.
- Keep all beads, small trinkets, and plastic bags out of reach of children.

Parade Units: Horses, Floats, Vehicles, Bands

- Do not hang from floats or vehicles in the parade.
- Do not encourage the crowd to run alongside floats for throws.
- Never reach under a float for a throw.
- Do not approach the horses in the parade unless the rider indicates that it is okay.
- Do not approach a float or other vehicle until it comes to a complete stop.
- Respect the directions of band and marching unit chaperones, as well as the police.

Personal Safety

- Piggybacking is dangerous.
- Drink responsibly. Do not become a smashed pedestrian.

Lost & Found

- Do not leave children unattended.
- Decide in advance on a meeting place in case anyone gets lost in a group.
- Consult police for directions to lost child stations.
